Derby time in Manchester

Lena and Ben are watching the football game between Manchester United and Manchester City

Put the events of the game into the correct order.

Number	Event
	They have to find their seats in the big stadium. That's not that easy!
	Before taking the train to the stadium, Lena and Ben buy their tickets in the city centre.
	Lena and Ben walk back to the train station.
	Lena and Ben are waiting in their seats for the game to begin.
	Lena doesn't like football that much. But she wants to see the new stadium. So they decide to go and watch tonight's game.
	They take the train back to the city and their hotel.
	After 45 minutes, Lena and Ben go to have a drink and something to eat.
	Right after the beginning, the home team scores the first goal!
	The players are ready, and the game starts.
	In the end the score is 1:1. No team could score a second goal.
	Lena and Ben arrive at the stadium.
	At the train station they talk to other fans if they liked the game too.
	Ben is a big football fan. He asks Lena if she wanted to watch the game too.
	The visiting team can score a goal after 60 minutes of the game.
