

Exploring the United Kingdom

Worksheet

1/2

How till spake Norn Iron (How to speak Northern Irish)

Ben and Lena are in Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland.
Can you help them understand the special slang there?
Match the words with their definition.

aye ("Aye, I want to have some cake")	mother and father
an eejit ("You are a real eejit!")	a bread (roll)
banter ("Let's have some banter")	another way to say "hello" and "how are you?"
the peelers ("Attention, the peelers are coming")	a car
wee ("Would you like a wee bag?")	Northern Ireland
a windee ("Someone broke my windie")	to be lucky
'bout ye ("Hey there, 'bout ye?")	fun, funny things,
Da / Ma ("My Ma and Da wait for me at home")	French fries, chips
norn iron ("Welcome to norn iron")	yes
a motor ("Let's drive with my motor")	an idiot, a stupid person
the chippies ("I'll have some chippies with my burger")	a window to be a jammie guy / girl ("Neil is a jammie guy, he won the lottery")	the police a bap ("I buy some bap at the bakery")	small, little

Exploring the United Kingdom

Worksheet

2/2

Giant's Causeway

One of the most famous tourist attractions in Northern Ireland is Giant's Causeway.

Can you find the missing words?

Words to use:

Ireland	people	north	name	superhero
fight	volcano	wins	walk	million

Many years ago, a in today's Northern Ireland created the Giant Causeway.

That was about 50 or 60 years ago.

More than 40'000 stone columns are now on the coast of Northern Ireland.

The legend says a giant created a causeway to with another giant.

This other giant with the Benandonner lived in Scotland.

So Fionn, the giant from created a causeway from one island to the other.

In the end Fionn the fight against Benandonner.

Some also say that Fionn was not a giant but a

More than 1 million visit the Giant's Causeway each year.

You can also take a over the Giant's causeway.

